

SIERRA NEVADA HORSE SHOW ASSOCIATION

MARCH/APRIL 2010

The 2010 show season is upon us. We are looking forward to seeing all of you at all of our shows this season. This newsletter will be the last one sent to last year's members, so if you have not sent in your membership form, please do so! We have a new email address, it is snhsanv@yahoo.com. SNHSA would like to do our part to help the environment, so if you would prefer to receive an email version of the newsletter instead of a hard copy, please send us an email.

Congrats to Meghan McDonald on her reserve champion in the 1.10 jumpers at the NWC show in February & Wendy Brownlee & C-Note on their debut Grand Prix

Pair of Aces Stables-Show Season is getting off to a great start here at Pair of Aces Stables. We attended the Northern Winter Classic Welcome Week and came home with some fantastic ribbons! Liz Gioja and Safety Pin were champion in the 1.20m division, and Lexie Conrow and Wisconsin were champion in the Training AA Jumper division! Our pony hunters also did great, all coming home with good ribbons in the Childs Pony Division. We are looking forward to the show at Leone's in April, and the SNHSA show season. Check out our website for more information, and for information on our pony hunters we are offering for sale!

Maplewood Stables-Julie just returned from West Palm Beach, Fl where she judged for a week following a clinic she gave in Chicago at Country Ridge Stables. Then Julie goes to southern CA and NJ to conduct the USEF judge's clinic. In addition to judging the USEF Medal Finals with George Morris in Harrisburg in October, Julie will also judge the USEF Pony Finals in Kentucky in August and the USEF Hunter Breeding Finals in CA & VA in September. Julie is also one of the first USHJA certified trainers in the country. She will also be the clinician for the Jumper/Eq. portion of the Trainers Symposium in Seattle in April.

Zephyr Farms- ZF would like to welcome all of our new horses and riders. We are looking forward to a fun show season. ZF is having a play date Sunday March 28th; call Laurie at 200-8727 for more info. Classes will range from 2' to just over 3'. Let's get the horses out for some fun!!

Franktown Meadows-Franktown Meadows has kicked off the show season with great success! Sue Leep rode Franktown's Half Moon to many ribbons in the Baby Greens in weeks VI, V, and VI of HITS Thermal. They rounded out the three weeks as Champion in week VI, as well as Mid-Circuit and Circuit Champion in the Baby Greens. Aimee LaFayette and Sheridan were equally as successful with many ribbons. They finished up with a Championship in the Modified Adult Hunters and Reserve Champion for the Mid-Circuit. Franktown Meadows would like to welcome home Sarah LaFayette. After living in the Portland, Oregon area for seven years, Sarah decided to move back home to be closer to her family and horses. Everyone at Franktown is excited to have Sarah around! Check out Franktown Meadows new website! With a new look and feel, Franktown Meadows will be regularly updating its calendar of events, entry forms for upcoming SNHSA shows, information about the upcoming Hunter Derby, and posting horses for sale. www.franktownmeadows.com Also, don't forget to check out the Franktown Meadows Hunter Derby Website! This website will be where you can get all the information about the derby, how you can be involved as a sponsor, apply as a vendor in the promenade of shops, and purchase tickets. www.FMhunterderby.com If you are interested in lessons, training, or sale horses, contact Sue Leep at (708) 404 - 4336. We look forward to seeing you all at the upcoming SNHSA shows!
